President's Message

by Nancy Street

AAUW Priority: "AAUW promotes educational and life long learning opportunities for women."

Quote of the Month: "Year's end is neither an end nor a beginning, but a going on, with all the wisdom that experience instills in us. Cheers to a new year and another chance for us to get it right." Oprah Winfrey

Thanks to all of you who showed concern and inquired about my Dad. Basically, I think we saved his mind, if not his life, by removing him from the rehab hospital. He's now with my stepmom in a nice independent living situation. Still some kinks to work out, but at age 92, one expects that. I also need to send out a thank you to the anonymous board member who purchased a new nametag for me. What a sweet gesture; I really appreciate it!

Our December Holiday Open House was wonderful. Thanks to Bernice and Stephen Honeychurch for sharing their lovely home with us. And kudos to Bev York, Judy Regnier, Jackie Martinez and their helpers for organizing a great party. Thanks to all of you who provided goodies for us to enjoy!

Our next event is our Community Author Presentation, featuring Carolyn Fregulia, local Amador history writer. It will be on January 15, 2014, 6:30-8 p.m., at the Margaret Dalton Children's Center, 975 Broadway, Jackson. Hope to see you there. And save February 12, 3-5 p.m. for our Community Program on Healthcare for Amador Women and Children. Don't forget Libations and Conversations on January 22, 5:30-6:30 p.m., at The Cellar at Hotel Sutter in Sutter Creek.

Claire Wait and her hardworking committee are progressing toward a successful Home Tour in April. Please plan to do your part to make it so. Be sure to save the date for the Home Tour in Sutter Creek: April 12, 2014.

Sandy Campbell is chair of our Nominating Committee. She and her team are looking for officer candidates and committee chairs. Please be open to serving our branch as an officer or board member. Everyone has valuable experience to share and the potential to use it positively. New folks and new ideas are just what we need!

I am finally including a copy of our board approved 2013-14 Action Plan in this newsletter. You can see we are progressing very nicely on it. The board was not able to work on section IIA Branch in November, but will continue with Board Improvement at our January Board Meeting. When that section is complete, we will present it with possible bylaws and/or procedural changes.

As 2014 begins, I wish you all good health, warm hearts, and friends and family to cherish. Thank you for your dedication, perseverance, and BRILLIANCE

Getting to Know You: Greta McElroy

by Nancy Street

Greta was born in Nebraska, but grew up in Sacramento. Her mother still lives in the house she grew up in! She earned her B.A. in Management from St. Mary's in Moraga and worked for over a decade in school transportation, first as a trainer of bus drivers, and eventually being in charge of training for Northern California. She is now an elections officer for Amador County. "I started in elections sort of by mistake; I had been a poll worker for a long time when I asked if they needed help at the elections office in San Mateo County and they said yes--been working in elections ever since, which is about thirteen years."

Greta's husband, Mike, was an attorney and software engineer before retirement. Between them they have three children and seven grandchildren. She especially enjoys cooking, photography, reading, and Pilates (of course). Her secret talent is that she is very good at teaching adults and children.

Greta's mother was an active AAUW member, so when she finally got her degree (it only took over twenty years), she joined the Half Moon Bay branch, serving as President, and also was a dorm mother at one of the first Tech Trek camps at Stanford. "When I think of it, almost all of my friends are either members of AAUW or friends of AAUW members. I'm looking forward to making new friends and being active in AAUW here."

Home Tour Opportunity Quilt 2014

by Sue Harrington

The Home Tour quilt will soon be complete and ready to go on tour! It is a beautiful quilt and I know you won't want to miss the chance to put your name in the basket. Tickets will be available at the January meeting to check out and to purchase. Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5. If you would like to take a packet of tickets to sell to family, friends and members of other organizations you belong to, packets of 30 ($25) and 60 ($50) will be available.

If you belong to an organization and would like to borrow the quilt to sell tickets please let me (Sue Harrington) know and I will put you on the touring schedule. Remember you can also sell tickets wherever you go - photos of the quilt are in the packets.

This a sample of the pattern and is not the actual quilt

The drawing for the winning ticket will be held at the Home Tour Tea at 3:30 p.m. The winner need not be present to win.

The queen-size quilt (approximately 84" x 84") is created from Jinny Beyer's Around the World quilt pattern. It is a medallion-style quilt design with a center Mariner's Compass. Many of the fabrics used are from Jinny Beyer's collection. The dark background sets the stage for a gradation of colors from light turquoise to dark purple creating a stunning quilt.

The quilt was constructed by Barbara Garcia, Sarah Hart and Sue Harrington. The quilting was donated by Jackie Reeves.

If you are a quilter and are interested in assisting us with the next quilt, please contact Sue Harrington (susanlh@volcano.net).

Where Would You Like to Be a Hostess?

by Nancy Schuster

Before we start bombarding you with emails and phone calls we thought you might want to contact either of us to pick the location of your choice. This is an amazing collection of sites - each one is fantastic in its own particular way. Chose one of the following, and indicate your preference for a morning or afternoon start time.

- Baracco home
- Davis home
- Enola's Cottage (LeSage/owners)
- Trudgen home
- Sutter Creek Inn: (will need one hostess in the morning and another in the afternoon to take tickets. The Inn will take care of the tour portion)
- Lusby home: this is the site for the tea. Hospitality (Jackie Martinez and Carol Smallfield) will head up the group working at the tea.

We currently have a list of about a dozen members who signed up at our kick-off meeting and since then. They will be given first choice (Ogburn, Street, Berg, Van Fleet, Krupp, Staggs, King, Brumit, Campbell, Bilheimer, Stolk, McElroy) IF they choose by January 15th.

RSVP to: Aieleen Parker: aieleen@juno.com, or Nancy Schuster: nancys@volcano.net.

If there is a reason (a really good one) why you cannot help out on this day, please let one of us know that too. Thanks in advance for your quick response!

February Community Program – Committee Report

by Judy Lerner-Liston

In February AAUW will be holding a Community Program which we are naming ... "Resources for a Brighter Future". This workshop is to help women in Amador County find resources to assist them in obtaining health services, housing assistance, employment opportunities and/or nutritional programs. Our community does have opportunities in these areas, but sometimes residents are not aware of what exists. The workshop will be unique in its design. We will have representatives from established local agencies speak to the group during the first hour of the workshop, and then during the second hour the presenters will be seated at individual tables where attendees can speak directly to voice concerns or get first hand information.

It will be important that our AAUW members participate in several different ways. First, if you know some women who could benefit from the information provided at the workshop... please spread the word. Also, we will have flyers available if you know of some good places to distribute workshop information. The committee members are also distributing flyers, but there may be some places we have not thought about. The other way that it will be important for AAUW members to participate will be to attend the workshop. In this way our members can learn more about what is going on in our community, and then during the second hour of the workshop AAUW members can mingle with the participants to help them find the appropriate resources.

Details of the workshop are as follows. It will be held on Wednesday February 12th from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Margaret Dalton Children's Center, 925 Mission St. in Jackson. There is no cost to attend the workshop. Refreshments will be served. Child care will also be provided. Our committee is still firming up who all the agency representatives will be ... but we already have some excellent possibilities.

Committee Lead: Judy Lerner Liston. Committee members: Robin Stolk, Norma King, Myrna-Kay Robison, Bethany Renfree

A planning meeting for Supper Club will be held at Claire's house on January 3rd, 2 p.m. Please bring your ideas for menus and dates that you can host. The more ideas we have, the more fun we have!

Supper Club meets quarterly for good food and great fellowship. The menus are decided by the hostesses and usually feature a theme. Recent themes were a Downton Abbey picnic and a Thai food feast. Each hostess volunteers for a certain date and selects the recipes to spread the preparation among all the couples attending. If you aren't part of a couple, find an AAUW friend, become a 'Supper Club' couple and join the fun.

Walking & Strolling Group

Sheila Berg, Chair
sberg@volcano.net

Walks in the county are determined by the group at a planning meeting early in the year. The group takes one walk each month. Some popular walks of the past have taken us to Pi Pi, Lake Tabeau, French Bar and Electra Road. We usually bring a lunch to share along the way or at the end of the walk. If there is rain, the walk is cancelled. Call or email to attend or to get more information.
